OXLEY RECEIVES
CONGRATULATIONS FROM "W"

WASHINGTON—U.S. Rep. Michael G. Oxley (R-Findlay) returned George W. Bush's congratulatory telephone call today, reaching the President-Elect at his ranch in Texas. The two discussed about Oxley's new chairmanship of the House Financial Services Committee.

Oxley pledged to work with the incoming Administration on its agenda for areas under the purview of the Committee. Bush asked Oxley to meet as soon as practical with Federal Reserve Chairman Alan Greenspan, Treasury Secretary nominee Paul O'Neill, and the yet-to-be-named chairman of the Securities and Exchange Commission.

To take Oxley's call, President-Elect Bush took a break from packing boxes for the move to the Bushes' new home at the ranch. Oxley let Bush go when he heard the future First Lady calling in the background.
